The following Reports will show continued vitality and vigor in all branches of our parochial work, spite of the embarrassments incident to the rebuilding of our Mission Chapel and schools. I have been specially pleased this winter by the cheerful and effective co-operation rendered by many newcomers into our congregation. SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT.

" Hold fast the form of sound words." II TIM. 1-13.

The teachers and officers of St. Mark's Sunday-school have worked untiringly during the past year to lay the foundation for carrying out the injunction of the Apostle. How far we have succeeded time alone will tell, but we have honestly tried to make our children love the Bible, as being the word of God, and feel that "Truth, Mercy, and Love" are "sound works" that must be lived out in our lives.

In our lessons we have gone over the life and work of our Saviour and his Apostles, and have endeavoured to make the children realize the personality of the different characters, and the time and places in which they worked and lived. This has in some cases been no easy task, as may be understood by the answer of a boy to his teacher, who was regretting his inability to interest his class, "Teacher, it is hard to interest us in what we do not believe;" and I think this answer might be given by more than one-half of the boys and young men in our Sunday-schools to-day.

As an aid to the instruction given, the children have been encouraged to express their thoughts on Bible subjects in writing. At Easter four books were given as prizes for thoughts on the characters of four of the women of the New Testament; and at Christmas, through the kindness of a member of the Church, gold medals for the two best essays on the "Beauties of the Litany."

We have a singing school, under the charge of Mr. Broadbent, meeting on Friday evenings during six months of the year, when we practice over our hymns for Sunday. In connection with this there is a Literary Society, composed of the young women and men of the Bible Classes and the older members of the School; and from time to time they give entertainments to their friends. We have had our Christmas and Easter festivals and our annual excursion. In this way we have shown the children that we wish to do them good and give them pleasure, and we believe it has had a good influence in the School.

The School begins at 9:30 A. M. and closes at 10:50. We continue to make our service follow that of the Prayer Book as much as possible, and the first Sunday in the month we have the Litany and Catechism.

Our School has never been in a better condition than at present. Let me, then, ask a continuance of your aid for to better the condition of the School—expenses seldom thought of by those outside of Sunday-school work.

I have been ably assisted in the School work during the year by both officers and teachers, and I trust I have made it as pleasant for them as they have for me.

Superintendent.

Tibrarian's Report.

"God be thanked for books! They are the voices of the distant and the dead, and make us heirs of the spiritual life of past ages. Books are the true levelers. They give to all who will faithfully use them the society, the spiritual presence, of the best and greatest of our race."—Dr. WM. E. CHANNING.

Although by many a Sunday-school Library is looked on as scarcely a religious work, yet the silent influence of a book often reaches far deeper than any spoken word.

It is a matter of history that many who have made themselves immortal names received their first impulse through reading some book. Loyola was a common soldier till he read the "Lives of the Saints." It inspired him; it showed him his lifework, and the founding of the powerful Order of Jesuits was the result. And it is said that Luther received the first seeds of reform into his mind by reading "The Life and Writings of John Huss."

St. Mark's Library consists of 643 books, and is used by 207 persons (127 female and 80 male).

Upon 38 Sundays during 1882, 3,464 books were issued, making an average of 91 per Sunday. The largest number given out was 122 and the smallest 57.

It will be seen by a comparison with last year's report that the average per Sunday has fallen off, and at first sight this looks very discouraging, but when we remember how many excellent works are now published in the so-called "Library" form, perhaps we have the explanation. Literature is cheap, and so, perhaps, our scholars are really reading more than before; but even if they are not, the mere quantity is not the important thing, it is the subject matter, and as concerns that we may feel safe. What they get from St. Mark's is sound, and every effort is made that the right book may reach the right reader, and we can only hope for the result, or, to use Paul's figure of old, we can only "plant" the seed and "water" it, "but God giveth the increase."

TWENTY-FIRST ANNUAL REPORT.

The Twenty-first Annual Report of the Ladies' Benevolent Society of St. Mark's Church does not differ materially from that of the past year, excepting in one respect, namely, that the weekly meetings have been more regularly attended by the members; and this proves, that although the Society does not progress in its work as rapidly as might be desired, it still maintains its own.

Women known to be deserving, who are in needy circumstances and seeking employment, are supplied with sewing, for which they receive fifty cents a week, and have the privilege of buying the garments thus made at a rate much lower than they could procure them elsewhere. This Society also endeavors, as far as it is able, to provide the destitute children of the Parish and Mission Schools with clothing, that they may be kept warm and comfortable during the winter.

During the past season, from November to April, eleven hundred and sixteen garments have been cut and made, and forty-nine women provided with employment. The Society has been greatly aided in carrying on its good work by donations of both money and clothing, and also by purchases made by many of the members.

With every new year, fresh hope is entertained that some of those who read this report will render assistance, not only with their means, but also with their time, for were it remembered how the number requiring aid increases each year, it would be readily understood how necessary it is that the number of workers should also increase.

S. A. Foley, Secretary.

Annual Report.

The Ladies' Auxiliary Missionary Society of St. Mark's Church lays its annual record of the eighth year of its work before the Parish, hoping that the result, compared with the means placed at the disposal of its members, will prove not only satisfactory, but an incentive to a larger assistance. The Society is supported by the liberality of a few, but could do more, and to better advantage, were there a greater number of contributors and of workers, and a more general interest taken in its objects and its endeavors. No two boxes are prepared to meet the same circumstances, or to provide for exactly the same needs, with the exception that all are sent to comfort and aid men and women and little children who themselves endure hardships and deprivations, while exercising a Christian and refining influence upon communities physically and morally savage and barren

The Society acknowledges with thanks the subscriptions and donations received during the past season.

Report of the Minister.

Since the last year's report the old building, wherein our work has been carried on for so long, has been torn down to make room for a larger and more commodious edifice, which we hope soon to occupy. With its ample accommodations for every kind of work, and its most attractive appearance, we look forward to a future of great usefulness in this crowded section of the city. It will be not only a monument of individual generosity, but will make possible many new attempts at reaching the people, which were impossible in the building formerly occupied. In June, 1882, the old building was torn down, and the only place which offered itself for our Sunday services was Clarendon Hall, in Thirteenth Street, near Third Avenue, a long way off from our old centre. And yet, in spite of this drawback, it is most gratifying to state that our work has not suffered appreciably, the great bulk of our Sunday School and Congregation following us thither, and our meetings held in the Church Chapel showing an increased attendance. Our summer work consists largely in sending poor children into the country for a week or more. This we have been enabled to do with large numbers, through the generosity of Mr. Rutherfurd Stuyvesant, who also provided an excursion to Glen Island for the Parish School and all the sick we could find. To Mr. Henry B. Renwick, also, the poor this summer have been largely indebted.

Our Day School has met regularly in the Chapel of the Church, and, in addition to its usual instruction, a daily service at 9 o'clock has been carried on, with much promise of good. The "Junior Literary Society" meets Monday evenings at 8 o'clock in the same place, and has very largely increased its attendance. The Mothers' Meeting on Thursday evenings at 7 o'clock affords work to about ninety deserving women. During the year several entertainments have been given to the Mothers' Meeting by ladies of the Parish, affording the poor an evening of pleasure long afterwards remembered. On Friday afternoons the Industrial School for little girls meets at 3 P. M. in St. Mark's Sunday School room, which is very largly attended. Friday evening at 8 o'clock an informal service of singing, prayers, reading of Scripture and addresses affords an opportunity of worship to a large number who find it difficult to attend other services. During the winter two new agencies for the relief of the poor have been attempted. One is the "Penny Fund," for the small savings of our poor women; the other is the "Coal Club," which, by an arrangement with a Co-Operative Coal Company, furnishes subscribers with coal at a greatly reduced rate.

Of the Loan Relief Association and the Guild of the Good Samaritan, we need only say that their efforts have been unabated among the sick and needy. Acting in concert with the "Charity Aid Organization" of this city, which has an office in the Parish, the worthy poor have been reached, while imposture has been almost wholly prevented. The medical work, under Dr. J. Blake White, is beyond all praise. We would acknowledge the most effectual assistance rendered by many in these different departments of our work, and without naming them tender them here our thanks. God has been very gracious to us in the past, and we look forward towards entering into the new edifice with large efforts and, we trust, more complete results.

INFANT CLASS.

Teacher, (Vacant.)

Report of the Superintendent.

The past year has been in many respects a trying one for our School. In the month of May we gave up possession of our old Chapel and School, where for the past seventeen years our services have been uninterruptedly held, and removed to temporary quarters—i. e., Clarendon Hall, Thirteenth Street and Fourth Avenue, which is somewhat distant, but no suitable room could be obtained in the vicinity of our former work.

In consequence of removal, our Infant Class, numbering some two hundred scholars, has decreased to about seventy five, and the various classes have been more or less affected by the change. The falling off, however, is very largely confined to the smaller pupils. Our largest attendance since removal has been 433 teachers and scholars, while our average will not exceed 380.

We are looking forward anxiously for the completion of our new Chapel, where, with increased accommodations, we hope, with God's help, to do a more effective work in bringing little souls to him.

We have lost by removal and resignation no fewer than eight teachers, among them some noble, earnest workers—Mrs. Charles Hurlbut, Miss Rachel J. Wilbur, Ella Armbrecht and Eliza Bowne—whose faithful services in this work, covering many years, make it exceedingly difficult to fill their places.

Our work, as a consequence, has been greatly hindered for lack of teachers. Several classes, including the Infant, are unsupplied. Who will esteem it an honor to work for and to be counted as a fellow-laborer with God?

We have much, however, to be grateful for. Good health and general cleanliness are marked features of our School. Very few cases of sickness have been reported. Thankful for all God's mercies in the past, our hearts are more than gladdened by the prospect of our new Chapel and School, which is now being erected through the noble generosity of Mr. Rutherford Stuyvesant.

"There are some deeds so grand,
That their mighty doers stand
Ennobled, in a moment, more than Kings."

The erection of this large and commodious Chapel supplies a long felt want. Through its gates may many find an entrance to the Eternal City.

THE DAY SCHOOL.

Meets from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M., temporarily, in the Lecture Room of St. Mark's Church.

90 children's names are in the Book—40 boys and 50 girls, from 5 to 14 years of age. There have been a number of cases of scarlet fever among the children, but we have been fortunate in not losing any by death. A daily Service at 9 A. M. is a new feature which has been added to the School.

The following donations are thankfully acknowledged:

Mr. Rutherfurd Stuyvesant, ice cream and cake for the Festival; Mrs. Hamilton Fish, $10 for prizes; Mrs. Wyatt, $2; Mrs. P. C. Schuyler, $1; Mrs. General Mallett, 24 pairs of woolen mittens; Mrs. Lee, clothing; Mr. Underhill, 4 iron stands, six small safes, 4 pair of roller skates; Mrs. Pierrepont, flowers.

Mr. Rutherfurd Stuyvesant, as usual, gave an Excursion to Glen Island to all the scholars and their parents, besides sending a large number in the country during the summer heats. To this is probably owing that we had no deaths.

The Loan Relief Association has endeavored to meet the needs of those to whom a timely loan would prevent pawning some needed article, or bridge over the gap until work could be paid for.

Of the twenty loans made during the year, twelve have been fully repaid, and eight have been partly returned. The relief afforded by the Association during sickness is of various kinds. Money, food, clothing, bedding are given or lent, and great distress is often relieved.

An invalid chair was presented to the Society. It was loaned to a young man whose disease rendered him unable to lie in bed for four months.

One of the most distressing cases relieved by the Association was that of a man dying in consumption. He was taken from the wretchedness of his own home to the "House of Rest." His children were fed and clothed, and employment procured for his wife. In another home of poverty and want a cripple girl, aged sixteen, was found. Not having the means to procure good medical advice, she had suffered for years from a disease that was thought incurable. She was sent to St. Luke's Hospital, where she received the kindest care and treatment, and after five weeks returned home cured. Many cases of interest could be mentioned where naked and hungry children were clothed and fed, and where sick were helped through months of weariness and pain by food, medical attendance and personal visits

The Association would be glad of the help of all the members of the parish in this work. Food is often needed for sick persons, nourishment during convalescence, and milk for sick children. The Association would be grateful to persons who would volunteer to supply such things when needed.

The Association has also endeavored during the past year to encourage those whom it could reach, in saving up money during good times, for use during sickness or other distress. The plan of saving was recommended most heartily at several of the Mothers' Meetings, and at length a Penny Saving Fund was established at the meetings, and every woman was urged to put into it any sum, however small. After some investigation of the workings of other societies of the same kind, a plan was adopted by which money could be received and interest given, as soon as one dollar had been credited to any woman. The limit of money which the fund could receive was twenty-five dollars. was then to be put on account in the savings bank in the depositor's name and the book transferred to her, with the privilege of beginning again to lay up in the fund. This has actually been done in one case, and two other accounts are growing toward the same result. In all fifty-one accounts were opened. $101.75 were paid in, of which $60.65 are still to the credit of the depositors. As a further experiment in the same direction, three shares of stock were purchased in the Consumers' Coal Company, and coal was sold to the women at stockholders' discount. Seventeen tons have been sold in this way, the purchaser invariably paying in advance.

The Mothers' Meeting.

THURSDAY EVENINGS FROM 7 TO 9.

It would be almost impossible, in a short report, to give any adequate idea of the work done in various ways among the poor women connected with the "Mothers' Meeting." The latter part of last season a "Penny Savings Fund" was established to try and teach the women the desirability of laying aside even very small sums of money every week. Since April 6th, 1882, sixty dollars and twenty-one cents have been received, in sums ranging from one penny up to ten dollars. About the same time a "Coal Club" was organized, which has been quite successful in furnishing good coal in small quantities to the poor at about the same ratio they would pay for it in larger quantities, they paying for it previously by weekly instalments.

Beginning December 1st, 1881, and ending June 1st, 1882, twenty-six meetings were held, with an average attendance of thirty-four women. Through June the rooms were opened more especially to receive deposits for Penny Fund and Coal Club. Flowers were received from the Flower Mission and distributed, and the meetings were closed with religious selections and singing of hymns, followed by prayers.

 $818\frac{1}{2}$ yards of material were cut into 293 garments, all of which were paid for in full, making this branch of work entirely self-supporting.

A donation of new material was received from Mrs. Faure.

At the close of the season a tea-party was given to the women, to which the following persons contributed:

Mrs. Webster, Mrs. Muzio, Mrs. Sackett,
Miss Catlin, Miss Beach, Mrs. Cannon,
Mr. Stuyvesant, Mrs. Schuyler, Mrs. Tousey,
Mrs. Quackenbos, Mrs. H. Fish, Jr.,
Mrs. Tyler,
Mr. Underhill.

Mrs. Hamilton Fish also sent a box of beautiful cut flowers, which were distributed among the women.
